

SONGS OF YONI

With songs licensed to:

1. TWENTYSOMETHING	4:29	6. CONSIDER THIS	4:07
2. BEING 13	3:16	7. FATE OF THE UNION	4:10
3. A LESSON IN FREUD	3:08	8. THE FIGHT GOES ON	4:49
4. MAYBE THIS TIME	3:52	9. MORNING	3:37
5. USUAL BIOGRAPHY	3:42	10. TALES OF HIGHER LEARNING	3:22
		11. LET THE DEVIL KNOW	2:58

TRACKS

HIGHLIGHTS

Extra Credit has been licensed to TV shows on networks including:

MTV – The Hills, Real World, Road Rules, Real World/Road Rules: Extreme Challenge, My Super Sweet 16, Newport Harbor: The Real Orange County, Human Giant
Oxygen Network – Bad Girls Club
Lifetime – America’s Psychic Challenge
PBS – Roadtrip Nation

Extra Credit has received airplay on over 200 college radio stations nationwide.

The first single “Twentysomething” was named one of Indie-music.com’s Top 25 MP3s of 2007.

“Twentysomething” has been licensed to the renowned young adult consulting firm of the same name, Twentysomething Inc., for use on their website (client list includes Apple, Coca-Cola, McDonalds, Toyota and Time Warner).

“Let The Devil Know” was licensed to be featured in the final scene/end credits of the 2008 independent film “One-Eyed Monster” starring Ron Jeremy.

Yoni accompanied award-winning singer/songwriter Ellen Bukstel at a Barack Obama rally in Miami.

Yoni was named 1st Runner-up from the USA in the Best Male Artist category of the 2006 International Music Aid Awards and 3rd Runner-up from the USA for Best Songwriter.

Yoni was a semi-finalist in the 2006 Florida Grammy Showcase.

Artist - Yoni

management@songsfonyoni.com • www.songsfonyoni.com
www.myspace.com/songsfonyoni • 954 461 8569

TV & Radio - Jon Delange

Tinderbox Music • Jon@tinderboxmusic.com
www.tinderboxmusic.com • 612 375 1113

Press & Publicity - Scott Sameroff

Luck Media & Marketing • scott@luckmedia.com
www.luckmedia.com • 818 760 8077

BIO

We’ve heard enough about Generations X and Y—get ready for Generation Yoni. Thanks to his angst, edgy modern rock anthem “Twentysomething,” the Florida based singer/songwriter is boldly giving voice to the frustration of his peers, ambitious and restless college grads eager to conquer the world but running into roadblocks and hairpin curves along the way.

That post-college transition theme permeates throughout Yoni’s full-length debut album Extra Credit which has been picked up for licensing by numerous shows on MTV, Oxygen Network, Lifetime and PBS. As one South Florida music editor says, “Yoni’s music conveys the experiences of post-college life better than any other pop singer who comes to mind.” Since its release, Extra Credit has received airplay on college radio stations nationwide and propelled Yoni to the forefront of South Florida’s independent music scene.

Yoni, who was profiled recently on Miami’s popular entertainment news show Deco Drive and featured on the cover of the Broward-Palm Beach New Times, has been playing colleges throughout Florida and was asked to perform with award-winning singer/songwriter Ellen Bukstel last summer at a Barack Obama rally in Miami. He plans to tour colleges all over the U.S. in 2008 and will be playing a showcase at the RedGorilla Music Fest during the SXSW music conference in March.

“A stellar debut album... a catchy lead single, ‘Twentysomething,’ developing a life of its own... perfect for MTV and television in general.”

New Times

“Smart pop-rock... delivered with pile-driving funk oriented grooves and lots of electric guitars.”

Evolution of Media

“His consuming timbre will immediately hook listeners in and make them want to listen keenly to each lyric this musician utters.”

The Celebrity Café

“Yoni’s latest is LOADED AND READY TO PLEASE! TOP NOTCH ALBUM!”

Jayvee Music

“From working on music productions to becoming a headlining pop rock performer, Yoni is destined to become a major name in the indie rocker world.”

BVS Reviews

“We love your music - great job - keep it up mate!”

The Verve, UK band with chart topping singles including the smash hit “Bittersweet Symphony”

“‘Twentysomething’ grabbed me immediately. A contagious funky little groove, a verse that speaks to the iPod generation and great production that draws you in and holds you there. Yoni really nailed it with this one. I love it.”

Aaron Stang, Grammy Winning Guitarist